Note:

1. For State of Maharashtra, this is applicable only to Banks which are registered on the NeSL 10D platform. Click here
2. States & Union Territories for Digital E-Stamping, Click here

3. Please note the above article codes are made indicative for the purpose of implementation of electronic Bank Guarantee (e-BG) and the banks are advised to take views of their legal team before implementing.
4. The responsibility for payment of stamp duty lies with the Bank executing the document and therefore, NeSL is not responsible for any deficiency in payment of stamp duty. Bank has to choose the appropriate article code corresponding to the contract type.
5. The responsibility for resolving any dispute related to stamp duty between party to contracts, i.e. Bank and customer, lies with the Bank.
6. Also, if the Banks face any difficulties in determining the article codes or have any doubts regarding the applicability of the article codes to the agreement or regarding stamp duty, the Banks should approach to the concerned Collector of Stamps for adjudication.
